

The Iowa State University Student and Scholar Health Insurance Plan for 2008-2009!

DOES YOUR COVERAGE MEASURE UP?

Staying healthy is an important part of your success at Iowa State University. It's important to understand your options before starting school. Even though you may have coverage back home, the Iowa State University Student and Scholar Health Insurance Plan offered through The Chickering Group, an Aetna Company has many advantages.

Important Advantages:

- The Chickering Group, an Aetna Company, has been specializing in student health insurance plans for over 20 years and currently partners with over 130 colleges and universities nationwide.
- The Thielen Student Health Center offers students comprehensive primary and specialty services on-campus. Students must first seek treatment and care at the Thielen Student Health Center. Failure to utilize the Student Health Center will result in non-payment of benefits.
- Access to 672,000 local and national preferred providers. The Preferred Provider Network is Midlands Choice for care received in Iowa. Aetna is the national Preferred Provider Organization for care outside of Iowa.
- Plan provides worldwide coverage 24 hours a day whether studying abroad, school breaks, traveling on holiday or vacation.
